One year, I watched a marathon race in my town. All the participants ran across the starting line and moved forward 27 the race began. 28 , most of the runners were out of sight in the distance. I noticed a woman 29 ran very slowly, and she soon became the last runner. Even so, she still went on 30. Several hours later, she finally reached the finish line. There, a man held one end of a paper ribbon, and 31 end was tied to a post. The woman crossed the line and broke the ribbon with a big smile. The runner really moved me to 32. She never thought of 33 in the marathon. 34 her, the race was about finishing something she 35. Now, when I meet difficulties, I think of the woman. Her experience has encouraged me to do things 36 a determined way.

In my town, the __37__ marathon is very popular. One year, I joined the marathon __38__ team. My job was to follow the runners in an ambulance and give them medical __39__ if they needed it.

There were a hundred runners in the race. "Remember to drive slowly," I told the ambulance driver as we began moving __40__, "because we __41__ stay behind the last runner."

As the fastest runners __42__ in the __43__, I noticed a __44__ who was moving very slowly. __45__, I knew she would be our last runner. Both her feet were turned in, but her left knee was turned out. Her legs were so __46__ that it was probably difficult for her to walk. It would be even more difficult for her to run a marathon.
